Thames Valley Restorative Justice: The Process of the School Responders

NB: Within the restorative justice process no police action will be taken

Beginning End

Incident occurs within the school between two young people

Feedback to the school and referrer

Designated staff member from the school to contact the Thames Valley Restorative Justice Service

Conference will take place at school. An agreement can be drawn up if the young people desire

Thames Valley
Restorative Justice
Service will allocate a school responder

School responder will arrange for a Restorative Justice conference to take place

School responder will make contact with the school to arrange a suitable time to meet both young people individually to give them an understanding of the process